County Clerk Pierce introduced her DMV Deputy County Clerk, Wendy Dueppengiesser as a participant in the next discussion. County Clerk Pierce explained that when the appointment mandate was lifted several considerations were made <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Customer comments 2. Committee comments 3. Office space 4. What other county DMVs are doing 5. What the future may bring. Year to date through June Wyoming County DMV revenues are up 54%.
At 9:09 AM Supervisor Brick, T/Perry entered the meeting during this Agenda Item discussion.
Supervisor Brunner, T/Java asked for Walk-In service to be restored. Dep. County Clerk Dueppengiesser spoke to processing drop offs and dealer paperwork in between appointments. Supervisor Brunner, T/Java offered that she is concerned about the people they are serving and with the current arrangement she's not hearing community service, which is what she is hearing from her community. County Clerk Pierce stated she's hearing positive comments on appointments. Dep. County Clerk Dueppengiesser explained they were taking appointments by hand but there were too many calls to keep up with so they went to automated appointments. Supervisor Becker, T/Sheldon reiterated that the customer service is just not there. While attending the Sheldon picnic he had many attendees approach on opening to the public. County Clerk Pierce explained that the Delevan DMV is the only local DMV open without appointments. County Clerk Pierce added that as of last Friday surrounding counties are still only by appointment. Genesee County's plans are to open without appointments August 1st. There was some discussion about being overwhelmed with business if Wyoming County were to open without appointments while the surrounding counties still required appointments. The committee members lobbied for increased public service by opening up to walk-ins. County Clerk Pierce offered to discuss with staff at the DMV and implement a hybrid of appointments and walk-ins for two months
