WYOMING COUNTY CIVIL SERVICE
EXAMINATION ANNOUNCEMENT

Supervising Janitor

Exam #68573 OC

Salary: Varies within school districts

EXAMINATION TO BE HELD:

December 11, 2021

APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED TO:

November 11, 2021 by 4:00 pm in this office or postmarked by 11/11/21.

ISSUED: October 18, 2021

LOCATION OF POSITION: The resulting eligible list from this examination will be used to fill vacancies as they occur within Wyoming County School Districts.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT: Candidates must have been legal residents of Wyoming County or a Civil Division or a School District subject to the jurisdiction of the Wyoming County Civil Service Office where that School District or Civil Division extends beyond the boundaries of Wyoming County, for at least one (1) month immediately preceding the date of the written examination and at the time of appointment.

CERTIFICATION: Preference in appointment may be given to candidates who presently reside in a civil division or district where the vacancy exists in accordance with provisions of Sec. 23 (4-a) of Civil Service Law.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Graduation from High School or a general equivalency diploma and two (2) years of experience in supervision which shall include equipment procurement, product knowledge and use, and evaluating employees.

DUTIES: This is an important supervisory position involving responsibility for efficient and economical cleaning and maintenance of a large school building or a number of buildings, as well as other related facilities. The work is performed under the general direction of a superior allowing wide leeway for exercising independent judgment. The incumbent maintains buildings and facilities to approved standards of cleanliness and operation. Immediate supervision is exercised over the work of subordinate cleaning personnel.

Subjects of examination: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

1. Building cleaning

These questions test for knowledge of basic principles and practices of building cleaning. They cover such areas as equipment, tools, supplies, methods and procedures for cleaning different types of surfaces and materials under various, commonly occurring circumstances.

2. Building operation and maintenance I

These questions test for knowledge of the basic principles, practices and techniques essential to the correct operation and maintenance of public buildings. They cover such areas as building maintenance; preventive maintenance, and minor repair of electrical and plumbing systems; methods and equipment for snow removal; building safety and equipment storage.

3. Operation and routine maintenance of heating, ventilating and air conditioning systems

These questions test for knowledge of basic principles, practices and techniques essential to the correct operation and maintenance of heating, ventilating and air conditioning systems, including such areas as minor cleaning; room temperature and building ventilation control; steam, hot water, and hot air heating systems; boiler operation; troubleshooting air-conditioning system problems, and proper maintenance of air-conditioning systems.

4. Work planning and scheduling

These questions test for knowledge of the principles used in developing and implementing work plans and for the ability to arrange work assignments in a manner that will achieve work goals while staying within scheduling criteria. This may include setting up vacation or work schedules, taking into consideration such factors as seniority, work skills, duty hours and shift coverage.

5. Supervision and training

These questions test for knowledge required by a supervisor to set goals, plan and organize work, train workers in how to do their jobs, and direct workers towards meeting established goals. The supervisory questions cover such areas as assigning and reviewing work, evaluating performance, maintaining work quality, motivating employees, increasing efficiency, and dealing with problems that arise on the job. The training questions cover such areas as determining the necessity for training, selecting appropriate training methods, and evaluating the effectiveness of training.

Calculators are permitted for this examination. Candidates are permitted to use quiet, hand-held, solar or battery powered calculators. Devices with typewriter keyboards, "Spell Checkers," personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries, or any similar devices are prohibited.

A Guide for the Written Test for High-Level Custodians is available at the New York State website: www.cs.ny.gov/testing/localtestguides.cfm. Candidates not having access to a computer to the internet may request copy of the test guide form the municipal civil service office conducting this examination using the contact information found elsewhere on this announcement.

SABBATH OBSERVERS/DISABLED CANDIDATES/MILITARY MEMBERS: If special arrangements for testing are required, indicate this on your application. Any member of the Armed Forces of the United States of America, who having duly filed an application to compete in a scheduled competitive examination for Civil Service employment by the State of New York or any of its subdivisions and who due to active military duty is deprived of the opportunity to compete in such examination shall be provided with an opportunity to compete, under terms and conditions deemed appropriate by the State Department of Civil Service or Municipal Commission, by way of a special military make-up examination.

This examination will be prepared and rated in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Law, Rules and Regulations dealing with the preparation and rating of examinations will apply to this examination.

Current members of the Armed Forces may apply for Veteran's credits by filing an application for Veteran's Credits (Form VC-1). Proof of military status must also be presented and verified in order for consideration of granting of "conditional" Veteran's credit. Acceptable proof may include a military I.D. card, military orders, or others official military document that substantiates active military service at time of exam. This documentation and VC-1 Form must be received prior to the establishment of the Eligible List for this examination. The "conditional" status of the additional credits will remain until proof is provided indicating that the service was in time of war and that the veteran received an honorable discharge, or was released under honorable circumstances.

VETERANS: Disabled and non-disabled war veterans who are eligible for additional credits must submit an application for veteran credits with EACH application for examination. Candidates who wish to claim veteran credits on an examination should request an application and information sheet from the Wyoming County Civil Service Office. Veteran's application forms will also be available upon request at the examination center. The completed forms must be received before the eligible list for this examination is established in order to utilize additional credits.

In conformance with section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.
